“ I would like to think about this as a celebration of life. Rachel was known as a wonderful person that always had a smile that would light up a room when she walked in.

I would like to share memories I have of Aunt Rachel. She was a kind, loving, caring soul, and always willing to help family members when help was needed. A special person that always knew what to say to brighten your day. Rachel love her family.

I will always remember when I was growing up the times Rachel, Bud, and Janice would come to visit, I was so excited to see them. Before coming inside to visit, Bud would always have to wipe off his black truck because he couldn't stand for it to get dirty.

As we all grew up, got married, and moved away...we didn't get to see each other as much as we would have liked. Rachel was that aunt that I could truly say was a wonderful person inside and out.

Aunt Rachel will be dearly missed and I can never repay her for all she did for our family.

*Love,
Ann*
