Sandi is in the loving arms of the Lord now with no more pain to bear. She shared her love on earth to all of us patients of Dr, Dumas and I presume everyone she came in contact with. I don't believe I have ever seen her in a bad mood during all the time I know that I knew that she was feeling pain. My Sandy and I along with the rest of the Kickers will miss her kindness and love for her patients. Unless you know her caring attitude you will never really know her, She really loved our strawberry Jam.
