“ I never met Sararose in person, but felt that I knew her anyway through my long friendship with Judge Dan Rogers with whom I served on the Jefferson County Circuit Bench. Whenever he spoke of "Sararose" his face would always light up and a smile come upon it, regardless of the immediate work and pressures that he was under while in service on the bench. She lit up his life, and he did not have to say that for you to know it to be true, you just have to know Dan Rogers.

I last saw Judge when he came by with his daughter concerned for Sararose's health and condition while at the hospital. He was quite worried and concerned at the thought of her health being at risk and the possibility of her loss.

And so it has happened, but Judge Dan is a strong man, a religious man and he will find God's plan in this loss that he has suffered with the passing of Sararose. Our prayers are with him and his family today and in the coming days that his strong faith and continuing love for his bride, Sararose, that I am sure has not been interrupted by her passing to the next life, will see him and his family through this time.

“ Mother helped Mrs Rogers and loved her. My brothers and I got to hear stories of some shenagin or other they were into. Through mother we learned to love her as mother did. Kevin and I are very sorry for your loss but we so appreciate having known of her. God bless and take care of all of you during your time of great sorrow.

“ Ed and I will always remember the fun we had traveling to Alabama football games for about 20 years. Sararose often packed a lunch. We would stop at a roadside park and enjoy a great home cooked meal on our way to TN, GA, MS, etc. She was an awesome cook. Sometimes we flew to Seattle, FL, CA,, etc. It was always an adventure with Sararose and Dan. They are special friends. Our prayers are with Dan, Vanessa, Danny and Walter.
