“ I am so sorry for the loss of Scotty, there are no words that can convey my sorrow for you and your family. I do know the loss, it's very painful, there will be days ahead that you will want to see him or hear his voice and to have a hug but there is only one person who can comfort you during a time as this, Jehovah God the great I AM. He is everything. I pray the Holy Spirit will hold you so close that you will feel his arms around you every day. There will be times that you will feel it is all a dream but I assure you it's real, I pray that you will find the peace of GOD every day as you try to make it through this world, it won't be easy by yourself but with family and friends you love so dear don't be afraid to share your feelings, they will understand because they love you, but try to remember there is one who loves you all even greater than anyone in this old world, he stretched out his arms and shed his blood for all. My prayer is that you will feel the peace that surpasses all of man's understanding, it is real and he can comfort you if you will allow him too. Remember there is nothing impossible for God and believe me, HE IS REAL, and you have memories and the love he gave you.

Sincerely,
a dear friend.
