“ Shane was so fun to hang with but most of all loved God very much. We lived next door to Shane and Karen at Carroll Courts, Lee married housing.

I remember us going on a trip leaving our first borns behind to be babysat. Shane ran right past me as we were going in to see our kids, he had missed Alyssa so much, lol. Praying for Karen and family.

“ I first met Shane and Karen while he was a student at Lee University. I had the privilege of seeing the birth of their son. We spent a lot of fun times together playing cards and sharing meals. He was a wonderful, loving man. Although I’ve not heard his laugh in quite some time, I remember it as if it was yesterday when we giggling about a Spades hand that he just took from Karen and I. May you Rest In Peace, dear man. You were loved by many and are missed by all you had the honor of knowing you. You are dancing around the throne!
