I am finally finding the place where Shee-Shee had her service. She was a wonderful friend and I have greatly missed her through the years. I met her on line and then came by Birmingham and actually met her. I talked once to Drake because he came in while we were talking one day. She loved her family so very much and missed her brother terribly. So now she has left us as well. Well wishes to the entire family and God bless you even almost a year later, because this is a Nana that is gone but never forgotten not by you or me. Love and God's care to you all.
