sassy personality. She was easy-going and had a young-at-heart quality. She loved to blankets for her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She had a rich and full life and made many happy memories with loved ones. She spent much of her life as a homemaker caring for her family. Later, she managed Yester Oaks Apartments for Morrow Realty in Fayette, Alabama, where she made many friends. She very much enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. “ I will hold dear to my heart the memories of us growing up. Shirley was like my second mom In my teen years . I was her babysitter. Which I loved doing! She was good to me! Sometimes we but heads cause we were both stubborn. But we loved each other. You can never break that bond between sisters. ❤️
