“ *To the family of Susie Headrick,
Please accept my deepest condolences during this most difficult time. May the Lord sustain and guide you as you face this period of grief. I have remained friends with and loved Carolyn Owens and her extended family since 1969. May God be with each family member knowing my thoughts and prayers will be with you.*

“ My memories go across many years from the Sumiton church. She was there when I began my ministry and has been a leading layperson in the United Methodist Church, especially the United Methodist Women. She was special and blessed me as well as many others.
