“ I will always remember Brother Terry for being a strong Christian man. While we attended Good Hope with him and Mrs. Sissy, he provided a fine example of a faithful deacon, because he gave all the time he could to the church with work days and other essential meetings, always had his wife by his side, and was truly always there whenever the doors were open, not skipping a church service just to be doing so. Brother Terry was never a man of many words, but the words he did share left a lasting effect on those that heard him speak wisdom and truth. With all certainty, his choices and actions offered a stronger witness for Christ than one who may share many words.

From the newly married to those who had been married for many years, Brother Terry and Mrs. Sissy always lived the very definition of Christian marriage. He really did love Mrs. Sissy like Christ loves the Church, and Mrs. Sissy submitted herself to Brother Terry without hesitation (Ephesians 5:22-25). I will always remember him opening the doors for Mrs. Sissy, refusing to get into a car without opening her car door, letting her take her time to get in, and shutting the door for her. I believe much of the respect that so many had for Brother Terry (Proverbs 31:23) was because he had a beautiful wife who quietly followed him. Even as he grew more sick, Mrs. Sissy was so careful with her words, making sure Brother Terry felt the love behind her words. To me, they had the most beautiful love story...
