“ We just found out from his wife Glenda of his passing and are very saddened by his passing. Tommy and Glenda have been very dear friends of our for longer than we can remember. Tommy was a soldier in Germany, barely 20, when we befriended. When I immigrated to the states, he maintained the friendship by visiting my parents and sisters. Though states apart, we maintained a friendship which endured. He and Glenda were with me when my first wife died of cancer. When I remarried they stayed the friends they always were, tried and true. They visited us in Germany where I was assigned as an employee of the Air Force and in Colorado Springs.

He loved Glenda with all his heart and I know she loved him. They created many cherished memories in their travels and cruises. Thankfully, Glenda will keep focused on these memories in her grieve.

I lost a great friend, one I could always rely on.

Our prayers are with Glenda and the greater family. We pray that God grant him eternal rest.
