“ Maggie Valley is where we met Woody and Pat. We would all gather around a campfire at night swapping stories and memories. Our circle of friends grew larger as new campers would join in the fun. We will miss our friend Woody but know he's with the lord and we will see him again one day. RIP

“ To all in the Henderson family, prayers for your comfort and peace. Woody or as my Mom would say "Woose" will be a special part of our memories. As for my memories, I will have a smile when I think of him and feel his tight hug 🤗 When I was little he would pick me up and swing me around and squeeze me so tight I could hardly breathe (of course that was 150lbs ago, LOL). I will miss this dear cousin and will be glad to see him again one day. I know there was a lot of rejoicing when he arrived at that home above.
Love, Coralie
