“ My deepest condolences go out to the family of Wendell Long. I got the privilege to work with Wendell at Dees Oil Co. and we stayed together in Baton Rouge during Hurricane Katrina. Wendell was a loving individual who loved his family and always knew how to make people laugh.

He was fun to be around and a great person. I have lots of lasting memories of Wendell. He was always upbeat and fun-loving. I never will forget when Wendell and I got the opportunity to go on an alligator tour there in Louisiana. He was terrified of snakes and gators. We finally talked Wendell into holding a baby gator. He did good until the baby started wiggling. Then Wendell got "antsy". The look on his face was priceless!

Thanks for all of the great times and memories Wendell! See you in Heaven buddy!

Sincerely,

Jeremy Nash
