“ It was such a Honor to Zach and to his parents to watch all these young adults show their respect ... It's amazing that in his short life here he touched so many. It was great to see them all line up and fly them Rebel Flags high and proud. And the smell of rubber well that was a new experience but so touching to the heart to see the love as it was done. Good job guys..

“ My favorite memory of Zach was the fact that whenever you ran into him, you didn't get just the average "hey, how's it going?" like you would from most people. You got someone who took the time to stop and have a conversation with you. The world needs more people like Zach. People who will slow down and take time to speak with you about what's going on in your life and what's going on in theirs. In his memory I'm going to try to be more like him, to make people feel like they matter. Because they do. And Zach made me feel that way every time he talked to me. My prayers are with his family and friends and everyone who knew this sweet person.

“ *Please allow me to offer my condolences to the, Rouse family with these comforting words: In addition to prayer and up-building association, God’s written Word is a source of comfort to those who mourn. Bible accounts reveal that Jesus has the deep desire and the ability to remove the pain of bereaved parents by bringing the dead back to life. (Luke chapter 7; Mark 5:22-24, 35-43) Such detailed Bible accounts about the resurrection of children show grieving parents today what they can look forward to. Jesus said: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.” (John 5:28, 29) God purposes that his Son will give life to those who have died. This is the hope for, Mr. Rouse, as well. I am very sorry for the loss of your beloved son. May God's Word comfort you and your family. Sincerely, Meryl ~ he alingwordsforu@gmail.com.
